

Phase III Hostage Negotiations and Crisis Intervention Certification

Instructors:

James Avey, Ph.D., LPC, Jim retired from the New Orleans Police Department in 2008. He spent 20 years as Commander of their SWAT Crisis Negotiation Team. Retirement lasted one week. He is now a full time Staff Instructor at the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office Academy and Commander of their SWAT Crisis Response Team. Jim is a US Army Veteran having served in the Republic of Vietnam 1967-1968.

Jim is an adjunct professor at the Loyola University in New Orleans where he teaches Forensic Psychology and Crisis Intervention.

Lt. Mark Lowther (Retired) is a US Marine Corps veteran. Lt. Lowther retired after 24 years of service with the Weber County Sheriff's Office (Ogden, Utah). His background is varied and diverse. He has served as a SWAT hostage negotiator for a major portion of his career. His background and experience comes from serving on two Metro SWAT teams. Lt. Lowther has experience on all levels of negotiations from tech to negotiation team leader. He has personally been involved in numerous threatened suicide and SWAT negotiation incidents. Lt. Lowther was also a primary negotiator during one of the first known hostage negotiations involving social media. Lt. Lowther has extensive background and training in suicide intervention and mental illness. He has instructed law enforcement locally and nationally and internationally on law enforcement interaction with suicidal individuals and the mental ill. Lt. Lowther has presented on crisis/hostage negotiations at conferences for the International Association of Hostage Negotiators, Florida Association of Hostage Negotiators, and the Midwest Association of Crisis Negotiators. He was named by the Utah Tactical Officers Association as the 2012 Crisis Negotiator of the year.

In 2017-18 Mark made three trips to Ukraine where he trained civilians, Law Enforcement, Military and The Security Service of Ukraine in verbal de-escalation and crisis/hostage negotiation.

In addition to his duties on the SWAT hostage negotiation team, Lt. Lowther has worked in corrections, patrol, detectives, vice/gangs, motors, warrants, and court security. Lt. Lowther served as part of the Public Safety Law Enforcement Unit assigned to the 2002 Salt Lake Winter Olympics. He has also served on a federal task force as a sworn Special Deputy United States Marshal. Mark has served as a public information officer, watch commander, patrol precinct commander, and court security services commander. Mark although retired from full time law enforcement, continues to serve as a part time deputy sheriff with over 28 years of service and maintains Utah Peace Officer status.

Lt. Jack Cambria is a recently retired member of the New York City Police Department who has contributed 33 1/2 years of exemplary service. He has served for 16 years in the Emergency Service Unit (ESU), whose primary focus is to provide Rescues, Tactical (SWAT), and Counter-Terrorism services to the City of New York. He has extensive experience and certifications in all facets of these operations, and is a New York State Certified Police Instructor. He holds numerous awards for bravery and dedicated service. He has responded to and served on many high profile assignments such as both World Trade Center disasters, plane crashes, and a variety of hostage and barricade situations, particularly violent and suicidal individuals. He also served as the Rescues Team Manager on the FEMA-Urban Search and Rescue Task Force. Because of his solid foundation of achievements, Jack was assigned to command the agencies elite Hostage Negotiation Team for the last fourteen years of his career. His duties consisted of coordinating the efforts of over 100 negotiators, who responded throughout New York City to all hostage related assignments. He was responsible for the training and certification of all new negotiators and refresher training of all of the current members of this team. Jack has and continues conducting in-service training for many international, federal, state and local law enforcement and corporate agencies. In 2006, he and two selected members of his team were dispatched to the U.S. Military Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba to conduct hostage negotiation training for members of the United States Joint Task Force. He has also served as a technical consultant in the entertainment industry, where he advised on major motion pictures. Jack has authored several scholarly articles on negotiations and has achieved his Masters Degree in Criminal Justice.
